Partnership with USC Shoah Foundation

USC Shoah Foundation's Visual History Archive allows users to search through and view more than 54,000 video testimonies of survivors and witnesses of genocide.

Initially a repository of Holocaust testimony, the Visual History Archive has expanded to include testimonies from the Armenian Genocide that coincided with World War I, the 1937 Nanjing Massacre in China, the Cambodian Genocide of 1975-1979, the Guatemalan Genocide of 1978-1983, the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda, and the ongoing conflicts in the Central African Republic and South Sudan, and anti-Rohingya mass violence. It also includes testimonies about contemporary acts of violence against Jews.

In order to integrate testimonies recorded and owned by other organizations into the Visual History Archive, USC Shoah Foundation has initiated the Preserving the Legacy program.

Partners in the program include Jewish Family and Children’s Services (JFCS) Holocaust Center, a consortium of nine Canadian archives; the Holocaust Memorial Center Zelkeman Family Campus, Holocaust Museum Houston, Florida Holocaust Museum; Museum of Jewish Heritage; the Richard G. Hovannisian Armenian Genocide Oral History Collection; the Azrieli Foundation; and the Blavatnik Archive Foundation.
Let’s meet!

“Dear Adam (if I may)”

“When will we meet?”

“I would love to meet with you!”

“Of course I’d like to meet you!”

“Thank you so much for your email.”

“It would be a pleasure to meet you.”

“Maybe we can have lunch.”

“Looking very much forward to talking with you!”
Er, on second thoughts . . .

“I am sorry, but I can't help you.”

“I am really busy at the moment and won't be able to join any of the meetings.”

“It is not up to me to negotiate any business deals.”

“I just muddled up some dates”

“I’m not quite sure if I understand what it is you are interested in.”

“I don't think that it would be worth your time to discuss the Visual History Archive with me.”

“Unfortunately I won't be in Munich.”

“I'm really sorry, but unfortunately on Monday I'm totally ‘booked out’. To work quietly and completely forgotten by the rest of the world is a great gift, a very great gift...”
Something had changed
OA <> cat
Different views of OA

“Information should be available to everyone, not just those who can pay.”

“For-profit entities shouldn’t benefit from academic research.”

“No compromise! You are either with us or against us.”
"For-profit entities shouldn’t benefit from academic research."
Submitting dissertations to ProQuest

Submit Dissertations or Theses

Completion of a dissertation or thesis is a tremendous accomplishment. Since 1938, ProQuest has curated these works to enhance their visibility and accessibility for the academic community. Through longstanding partnerships with more than 700 academic institutions, we have developed a trusted full-text archive of dissertations and theses that has been recognized as an Offsite Digital Repository by the U.S. Library of Congress.

Authors
Non-exclusive dissemination through ProQuest celebrates your achievement by increasing the visibility of your work and surfacing it in the academic discourse as part of a trusted global archive of more than 1.7 million works.

Why submit
How to submit

Libraries & Graduate Schools
Partnering with ProQuest for the non-exclusive dissemination of your graduate works increases their visibility within the research community. We can make it easier to manage and track your submissions, including deposits to your institutional repository.

Why submit
How to submit

Additional Information
Not finding what you are looking for?
Learn more.
Hall of Scholars

Author retains all rights
Making the case for submission
Digital and microfilm preservation

Iron Mountain

Library of Congress
My name is Lee Campbell & I'm a multi-disciplinary UX/UI Designer.
Enhanced metadata

blog.lulu.com/2017/12/12/what-the-hell-is-metadata/
Purpose of research
Reach: PQDT users
Reach: advanced and specialist researchers

MLA International Bibliography

USDA United States Department of Agriculture
National Agricultural Library

Inspec
An invaluable resource - over 17 million abstracts and specialised indexing to quality research literature in physics and engineering.

PsycINFO®
A world-class resource for abstracts and citations of behavioral and social science research

SciFinder®

Ei Compendex

ERIC Institute of Education Sciences

PubMed
PubMed comprises more than 28 million citations for biomedical literature from MEDLINE, life science journals, and online books. Citations may include links to full-text content from PubMed Central and publisher web sites.

The Philosopher’s Index
is the Most Authoritative Online Bibliography in Philosophy
Reach: Google Scholar users
Reach: non-traditional dissertations
The Improv Argument
The unanswerable question . . .